Term 4

We have now arrived at the final term of the academic year. It's amazing to watch the growth that has taken place in the children in the course of the year. Remember what the first week was like, especially for the Pre-Nursery children? Well, it is very different now and your children are happily settled into school life. For the parents whose children are in K2, there will be mixed feelings as your children come to the close of their preschool years.

We are indeed very blessed by all your support during the Project Work period. This is the third year that we were involved in ECDA's "Start Small, Dream Big" initiative to raise awareness of how children can contribute in tangible ways to the community in Singapore. Through your generous giving, we managed to raise close to $ 12,800 from our three campuses, and this money will be channeled to President's Challenge 2017 and other charitable organisations. Our children have become more aware that there are people in Singapore who do not have many of the things we take for granted.

Teachers' Day Celebration

This year's Teachers' Day Celebration was a memorable one. We truly appreciate and are very grateful to all the parents who coordinated this event. We are indeed touched by your well-wishes and hard work during the celebration. We also want to thank all those who contributed towards the lunch and gifts for the staff. Thank you once again to all the wonderful parents. We have never felt more special and blessed.

K1 & K2 Annual Concert & K2 Graduation Ceremony

It's time again for the annual concert. This will be a grand and special occasion for all, especially for the K2 children who will be graduating. Let's look forward to this memorable event!

Awards

Congratulations to Keagan Scott Ng of Starlight 1 (Leedon) and Melody Er of Starlight 4 (Harding) for making it into the finals of the 2017 Nationwide Ocean Conservation Art Competition!

Dr. Jacqueline Chung, SJCK's Senior Principal & Academic Director, was among 27 recipients from various industries who were presented with the inaugural SkillsFuture Fellowships on 2 August 2017. The SkillsFuture Fellowships recognise and support Singaporeans who have displayed skills mastery in their respective fields as well as personal commitment to mentorship and the skills development of others.

Joanna Koh, Vice-Principal of SJCK (Harding) and I are among 25 early childhood leaders selected for the 2nd cohort of PRINCIPAL MATTERS programme based on their openness to change, passion for self-improvement and commitment to a long-term career in early childhood education. This leadership development programme funded by the Lien Foundation adopts an experimental, multi-disciplinary approach that gives participants overseas exposure to best practices, as well as diverse learning opportunities with mentors and leaders outside the early childhood education sector.

Finally, we would like to share with you a poem that we hope will encourage you in your parenting journey.

*I'm a Hummingbird Parent

*I hover nearby, but not over my kids.
I remain distant enough to let them explore and learn to solve problems.
I teach them skills, mainly by example.
I zoom in only when their survival is threatened.
My goal for them isn't a risk-free childhood,
but a resilient life.*

LETTER & WORD RECOGNITION/LETTER SOUNDS

- You will need some alphabet magnet letters for this game. Take a small bag and place two letters in the bag that your child is familiar with. Call out one of the letters and have your child reach into the bag and find the letter called. When your child is able to distinguish between two letters, start putting three letters in the bag and so on, up to five letters.
- Draw a letter on a piece of paper, and say its sound. Have your child think of a word that starts with that sound. Write that word for your child to see.

FORMING WORDS

- Have your child make a card to give to someone special. They can draw a picture and sign their name. Your child might also write other letters or words, such as the name of the person he or she is giving it to.

WORD RECOGNITION

- On card paper, write the names of common objects found around your house. Place the word cards face-down in a circle. Play some lively music and ask your child to march around the cards. After a few seconds, stop the music. At this signal, your child stops, picks up the card and reads the word aloud. To continue, have your child set the card face-down, then resume the music.

Curriculum

III Chinese

The emphasis in our Chinese programme is that children learn to listen and understand simple phrases, speak it confidently, and recognise simple Chinese characters. To foster a love for the Chinese language, do continue to give your child opportunities to listen to songs, rhymes and stories. For this last term, the teachers will continue to extend their learning on these topics:

- Different Shapes
 - Cut different shapes out of coloured paper and ask your child to label these shapes in Chinese. Let your child choose his/her favourite shapes and make a picture out of these shapes on a piece of paper.
- Transportation
 - Take the public transport, such as the MRT, bus or taxi with your child or visit the airport or Clarke Quay to look at aeroplanes or boats. Visit a bus depot with your child. While there, have your child look at the buses, where the tickets are bought, and any other amenities, such as a snack bar or gift shop. Take a ride on the bus with your child.

我们的华文课程以听、说为基础，在听、说的基础上帮助幼儿实现简单读、写。注重培养幼儿学习华语的兴趣，以及对华语的喜爱。选择与幼儿生活息息相关的主题，引导幼儿在自身的生活经验中学习。

第四学期我们有两个主题：《不同的形状》、《交通工具》，以下是我们给家长的一些简单建议，来配合幼儿的学习。

- 不同的形状

引导幼儿在家里或者外出时，辨别不同的形状。或者用彩色纸剪出不同的形状，尝试引导幼儿在一张纸上用不同的形状创作出一幅画等简单活动。

- 交通工具

请家长带孩子感受不同的交通工具，如：地铁、巴士和德士，或带孩子到机场看飞机，克拉码头观看船只等户外亲子活动。

Curriculum

- Numbers on a number line
- Concept of zero (nothing left)

Suggested home activities
